MOSAIC

CHAMBER MUSIC OF SAN DIEGO

WELCOME

Thank you for joining us for the Mosaic Summer Chamber Music Festival Gala Concert. Today's performance is the culmination of a week of coaching, collaboration, and hard work by our student musicians, alongside our Fellows and dedicated festival faculty.

We hope you enjoy this celebration of chamber music, mentorship, and community.

Linda Piatt, Founder & Director, Mosaic Chamber Music

About Mosaic Chamber Music

Mosaic Chamber Music is a San Diego-based 501(c)(3) nonprofit founded by Linda Piatt, dedicated to chamber music education and mentorship for young musicians. Through this festival and our Fellows Program, students, Fellows, and faculty learn side by side in a collaborative, mentorship-driven environment. Please consider giving the gift of music education and help students attend our upcoming programs!

FACULTY

Jing Yan Bowcott, violin

A native of China, Jing studied at the Central Conservatory of Music, the Royal Academy of Music (London), and Indiana University. A member of the San Diego Symphony since 2006, she is violinist of the Artonic String Quartet and an active recitalist and educator. She has collaborated with Art of Elan, the La Jolla Music Festival, and the Chicago Symphony Orchestra's MusicNOW series. Her accolades include first prize at the Neimeng Violin Competition and the Royal Academy Soloist award. Dedicated to education, she also maintains a private studio teaching solo repertoire and orchestral excerpts.

Elizabeth Brown, cello

A San Diego native, Elizabeth was principal cellist of the Orquesta Sinfónica Sinaloa de las Artes in Mexico. She performs with Quartet Nouveau, California Chamber Orchestra, and Art of Elan, and teaches cello at the University of San Diego and Point Loma Nazarene. She has performed at the Ojai, Aspen, and Cervantino festivals, and has collaborated with opera and ballet companies, mariachi bands, and film composers. She earned both her Bachelor's and Master's degrees in Cello Performance from the Eastman School of Music.

Robyn Glasson, violin, viola

Born and raised in Cape Town, South Africa, Robyn has performed with the San Diego Symphony, San Diego Chamber Orchestra, San Diego Opera, and Pacific Symphony. She conducts the Mainly Mozart Youth Orchestra strings and is assistant band director for Solana Beach School District. She trained at Stellenbosch University and began her career playing in professional orchestras across South Africa, including the Cape Town Symphony and Cape Philharmonic Orchestra. She has also played with San Diego Opera, Long Beach Opera, and the Starlight Opera Orchestra.

Jeffery Ho, cello

Jeffrey Ho is a cellist from Santa Monica, California, and a member of Trio Conventi, an honors ensemble at the New England Conservatory that has performed throughout Boston, including a recital at Jordan Hall. He has performed with artists such as Kim Kashkashian, Anthony Marwood, and Donald and Vivian Weilerstein, and served as guest principal cellist with the Phoenix Orchestra under Joshua Weilerstein. Jeffrey has appeared at Yellow Barn, the Perlman Music Program, Tanglewood Music Center, and other festivals, and was a Piatigorsky International Festival Fellow at USC. He studied at UCLA, USC, and NEC with Antonio Lysy, Ralph Kirshbaum, Lluís Claret, and Blaise DeJardin, and is also an aspiring bow maker who completed his first bow in 2023.

Marguerite Jayasimha, violin, cello

A trained Suzuki Early Childhood and Violin Teacher, Marguerite co-founded the San Diego Suzuki School of Music in 2005 and is assistant director of the San Diego Suzuki Institute. She has performed with the La Jolla Symphony and numerous string quartets. She began violin training at age five and holds additional training in Kodaly, Music Mind Games, and Creative Ability Development. A former director of the Advanced Suzuki Institute at Stanford, she also enjoys directing middle school orchestras in her local district.

Summer Jones, movement & posture

Creator of the SUJO Method, blending mathematics, ballet, and Pilates. Summer has over 20 years of ballet and Pilates instruction experience, including work with the School of American Ballet and Alvin Ailey at Fordham University. Her method draws on a background in mathematics from Fordham University and the University of San Diego, paired with over two decades of ballet training and instruction. She has worked with the School of American Ballet, Alvin Ailey at Fordham University, and ballet schools throughout San Diego.

Travis Maril, viola

String Coordinator and Viola Faculty at San Diego State University, where he co-founded the SDSU String Academy. A top-prize winner at the Fischhoff National Chamber Music Competition, he teaches students worldwide through his online program, String Gym. He has performed with members of the Chamber Music Society of Lincoln Center and the Miro Quartet, as well as principal players from the LA Phil, Dallas, and Pittsburgh Symphonies. His pedagogy blog, String Theory, drew over twenty-eight thousand visits in its first year.

Julia Pautz, violin

A member of the San Diego Symphony since 2010, Julia holds degrees from the Cleveland Institute of Music and USC. She performs with the Artonic Quartet and co-founded Backyard Beethoven, bringing chamber music to outdoor spaces across San Diego. Hailed as a genuine virtuoso by the Dallas Morning News, she holds degrees from the Cleveland Institute of Music and USC and studied with renowned pedagogue Robert Lipsett. She maintains a private teaching studio near La Jolla and previously served on faculty at Texas Christian University.

Linda Piatt, violin, viola, Mosaic Founder and Director

Linda holds degrees from the University of Texas at Austin and the University of Minnesota. She is President of the Suzuki Music Association of California and Founder/CEO of Mosaic Chamber Music. She performs with the San Diego Symphony where she has shared the stage with artists such as Joshua Bell, Hilary Hahn, Yo-Yo Ma, and Itzhak Perlman. She also performs with California Chamber Orchestra, and Hutchins Consort. In the teaching studio, she supports the pursuit of excellence with clarity and structure alongside a compassionate approach.

Michael Strauss, viola

A former member of the Fine Arts Quartet, Michael has performed and recorded internationally as a soloist and chamber musician. He was principal violist of the Indianapolis Symphony for 20 years and is a graduate of the Curtis Institute of Music. He has recorded Mozart's complete viola quintets on Lyrinx and released the first commercial recording of Jennifer Higdon's Viola Sonata. He has also served on the faculty of Oberlin Conservatory, Indiana University's Jacobs School of Music, and Swarthmore College.

Dr. Cho-Hyun Park, piano

A native of South Korea, Cho-Hyun earned her doctorate from the University of Texas at Austin and won first prize at the 2014 Bartok-Kabalevsky-Prokofiev International Piano Competition, leading to a Carnegie Hall debut. She is a founding member of Ensemble Aquarelle. She has performed with the La Jolla Symphony, the La Jolla Music Society, and the Musical Merit Foundation, and is active as a piano teacher through the Music Teachers' Association of California, where many of her students have won regional and state competitions.
